

"The Choir", by Michael Davie

Screened on 10 December, 2009

Runtime: 82'

Shot over six years, The Choir is about the music that unites Jabulani Shabangu and a group of fellow inmates in a South African prison.

Jabulani is rebellious and angry until he meets a wily bank robber named Coleman, who recruits him for a heist.

The film was followed by a Q&A with Louis Lomax, Stéphane Hessel, Karel Kovanda, Heidi Hautala and moderator.

Invitation, poster and Handout:

View or download the original invitation

Programme and Handout for the event

Poster

