

"Redlight", by Guy Jacobson and Adi Ezroni

Screened on 12 April 2011

Runtime: 72'

The documentary Redlight, directed by Guy Jacobson and Adi Ezroni, set in Cambodia, tells the story of women who were forced into prostitution. The filmmakers Guy Jacobson and Adi Ezroni won the prestigious Global Hero Award for their work in Cambodia.

The film was followed by a Q & A session with Pierrette Pape (European Women's Lobby), Andrea Matocich, and other panelists.