ECOSOC has launched a major online campaign aimed at bringing the voices of youth into the important discussions and decisions of the Council ahead of its annual meeting in July. Youth are invited to share their ideas and thoughts on how science, technology and culture can help shape a sustainable world on ECOSOC 's dedicated Facebook page . Just launched is also a Thunderclap page , asking people across the globe to help empower youth to sustain the planet.

The online forum will run from 20 March to 1 July 2013
