

UN Under Secretary-General Jan Eliasson has used his keynote speech to the annual World Water Week in Stockholm, Sweden to make a passionate call for universal access to water and sanitation. "Water is life and sanitation is dignity" was Mr. Eliasson's message to the Water Week and in various meetings with Senior international and Swedish officials as well as civil society in Sweden.