

16.7.2015 – Countries today reached a historic agreement to generate financing for the new sustainable development agenda at the United Nations Third International Conference on Financing for Development \(FFD3\) , being held in Addis Ababa.

Concluding of months of negotiations between countries, the agreement marks a milestone in the creation of an enhanced global partnership aiming to overhaul global finance practices and generate investments for tackling a range of economic, social and environmental challenges. The 'Addis Ababa Action Agenda' is made up of more than 100 concrete measures that aims to achieve advancement in the areas of technology, health, social protection, infrastructure, micro, small and medium-sized enterprises, foreign aid, taxation and climate change.

Addis Ababa Action Agenda set in historic agreement

Thursday, 16 July 2015 12:33

UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon and African Union Commission Chairperson Nkosazane Dlamini Zuma at the Addis Ababa Action Agenda meeting.

UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon and African Union Commission Chairperson Nkosazane Dlamini Zuma at the Addis Ababa Action Agenda meeting.