Making It: Industry for Development

<https://www.unido.org/resources/publications/flagship-publications/making-it-unidos-quarterly-magazine>

Quarterly magazine published by the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO). It aims to stimulate informed debate about the role of industry as a dynamic force in wealth creation and development on the one hand, and the need to ensure the environmental and social sustainability of industry on the other. The magazine website includes additional material and relevant links, and provides a platform for discussion and debate about the intersection of industry and development.

UNIDO Times

<https://www.unido.org/resources/publications/publications-type/unido-newsletters>

The UNIDO Times newsletter is a platform to bring cross-organizational focus and visibility to the goals and achievements of sustainable industrial development and poverty reduction through UNIDO support. UNIDO Times will be published regularly on UNIDO's website, as well as be available in hard-copy, and will act as a means for the Organization to communicate institutional achievements to key stakeholders.
